HOW TO USE THIS INFORMATION

This analysis brings together ancient systems of wisdom to create a full spectrum map of who you are: Pythagorean numerology, astrology, the Tree of Life, and the Tarot cards. Each section gives you a piece of intellectual knowledge to help you see yourself more clearly. Knowledge is power, but only when you engage with it. Read your results carefully, let them soak in, and allow them to echo inside you. Do not rush. The self-reflection questions at the end of each section are designed to help you move beyond information into personal insight. They invite you to reflect, connect, and discover what these archetypes and symbols awaken within you.

As you go deeper, you will notice correspondences weaving through your analysis: how your ruling planet aligns with your numerology, how your element reflects in your Sefira, and how the Tarot is the glue of this system, acting as a living bridge between the abstract and the personal. Return to your reading often. Each time you revisit it, you will discover new layers and a deeper sense of integration. This is not just knowledge to read once - it is knowledge to live with. Personally, this system has transformed my own life, showing me how to recognize patterns, unlock potential, and grow into a higher version of myself. Used with sincerity, it can do the same for you.

SELF ANALYSIS OVERVIEW

The Self Analysis System is a pathway into deeper self-knowledge, bringing together some of the most profound wisdom traditions humanity has ever known. Through Pythagorean Numerology, you will discover the hidden meaning behind your birth date and name - numbers that reveal patterns, strengths, and lessons written into your life.

Astrology expands this view, showing you the influence of your zodiac sign, your ruling planet, and the element that moves through you. These are not random details, they are cosmic fingerprints that speak of your essence and the way you dance with life.

The Tree of Life offers another dimension of understanding. From this sacred map of consciousness, you are shown your most prominent Sefira - the quality of divine energy that shines strongest in you. This isn't abstract philosophy, it is a mirror of your soul's path. When you recognize this energy in yourself, you begin to see how it guides your choices, your challenges, and the growth you are meant to embody in this lifetime.

Finally, all of these insights come together through the Tarot cards - the Initiatic System that serves as the glue for the entire process. The cards are living symbols, a visual language that speaks directly to your intuition. Each card corresponds with the numbers, planets, elements, and Sefirot revealed in your analysis. They transform knowledge into experience, opening a dialogue between your mind and your soul.

This system is not here to tell you who you are, but to help you remember, reflect, and rise into the fullest expression of yourself. It is a guide for awakening, for integrating wisdom, and for living with clarity, self-realization and purpose.

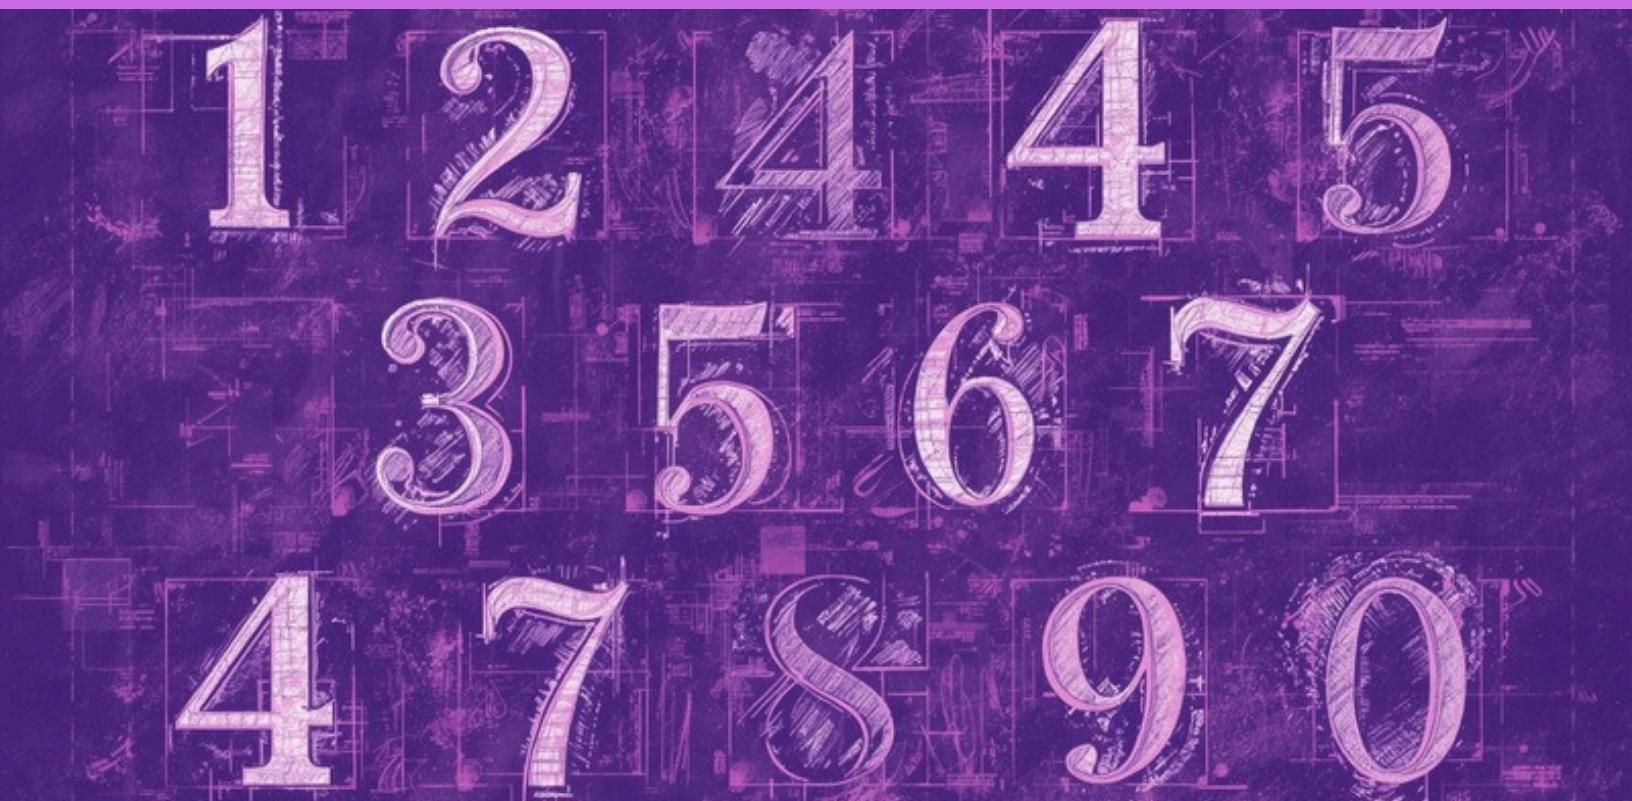

FIRST PART

NUMEROLOGY

Discover the hidden code of your soul through the numbers that shape your destiny. Each calculation reveals a mirror of who you are, guiding you toward deeper self-realization.

NUMEROLOGY

NUMEROLOGY

Numerology is the study of numbers and their influence on our lives. It is an ancient practice found in many cultures, including Egyptian, Chaldean, Hebrew, and Greek traditions. At its core, numerology believes that numbers are more than just symbols - they carry unique vibrations that can reveal insights about our personality, strengths, challenges, and life path. By understanding these vibrations, we can gain clarity, make better choices, and align with our true potential.

There are several approaches to numerology. Some focus on mystical or spiritual interpretations, like Chaldean numerology, which emphasizes hidden meanings in names. Others are linked to astrology or divination. However, one of the most widely practiced systems today is Pythagorean Numerology, named after the Greek philosopher and mathematician Pythagoras. He believed that numbers are the building blocks of reality and that each number has its own energy and influence.

In Pythagorean Numerology, every letter of the alphabet is assigned a number from 1 to 9. Using this system, we can calculate key numbers from your full name and date of birth. These numbers, often called "core numbers," include the Life Path Number, Expression Number, Soul Urge Number, Personality Number, and Birthday Number, among others. Each reveals different aspects of your life: your purpose, your talents, your inner motivations, and the way others perceive you.

The benefits of calculating your numerology numbers are practical and transformative. They help you understand yourself more deeply, identify your natural strengths, and recognize recurring challenges. By becoming aware of your patterns, you can make choices that are in alignment with your true self, improve relationships, and navigate life with greater confidence and clarity. Numerology also provides guidance for timing, such as personal year, month, and day numbers, helping you take advantage of favorable periods and prepare for challenges.

NUMEROLOGY

The Connection with Astrology

Numerology and astrology are deeply intertwined. In astrology, the planets, zodiac signs, and houses influence personality and life events. Numerology adds a numerical lens to this system. For example, your Life Path Number can amplify or clarify traits suggested by your sun sign or planetary alignments. Together, they provide a richer, multidimensional understanding of who you are and the cycles of your life.

The Connection with Tarot

Tarot cards and numerology also share a close relationship. Each card in the Major Arcana corresponds to a number (0-21), and each Minor Arcana corresponds to a number as well (1-10), and the cards carry symbolic messages that often reflect numerological principles. By understanding the numbers behind the cards, you can gain additional insight into the energies at play in your life, helping you make more informed decisions and uncover hidden patterns.

The Connection with the Kabbalistic Tree of Life

Numerology is also connected to the Kabbalistic Tree of Life, a map of spiritual and personal development in Jewish mysticism. The ten spheres (Sefirot) on the Tree correspond to numbers and stages of consciousness. By linking numerology to the Tree of Life, we can interpret numbers not only as personal traits or challenges but also as steps on a spiritual journey, providing guidance for personal evolution and higher awareness.

Ultimately, Pythagorean Numerology is more than a tool for self-reflection - it is a bridge to other esoteric systems, allowing you to explore the connections between numbers, planets, tarot, and spiritual growth. By studying your numbers, you gain a practical and mystical map to understand yourself, navigate life, and align with your highest potential.

ASTROLOGY

Astrology is the celestial script written across the heavens. Each sign, planet, and element reveals your place in the great cosmic design.

ASTROLOGY

ASTROLOGY

Astrology is the study of how the positions and movements of celestial bodies—such as the Sun, Moon, and planets—can influence human life, personality, and events. It is an ancient practice found in many cultures, including Babylonian, Egyptian, Greek, and Indian traditions. At its core, astrology is based on the idea that the universe is interconnected, and the energy of celestial bodies can reflect patterns in our lives.

The most common form of astrology today is Western astrology, which uses the zodiac—a circle divided into twelve signs, each representing different personality traits and life themes. Your sun sign describes your core identity, your moon sign reflects your emotions, and your rising sign shows how you appear to the world. The positions of all planets in the zodiac, along with the twelve houses they occupy in your birth chart, provide a detailed map of your strengths, challenges, relationships, and life purpose.

Calculating your astrological chart can offer many benefits. It helps you understand yourself more deeply, identify natural talents, recognize recurring patterns, and navigate challenges with awareness. Astrology can improve decision-making, enhance relationships, and provide guidance on timing important events in your life. By exploring your chart, you gain clarity about your goals, your emotional needs, and the opportunities and lessons that life presents.

The Connection with Numerology

Astrology and numerology are deeply intertwined. In astrology, the planets, zodiac signs, and houses influence personality and life events. Numerology adds a numerical lens to this system. For example, your Life Path Number can amplify or clarify traits suggested by your sun sign, moon sign, or planetary alignments. Together, they provide a richer, multidimensional understanding of who you are and the cycles of your life.

ASTROLOGY

The Connection with Tarot

Tarot cards and astrology also share a close relationship. Each zodiac sign is associated with specific Tarot cards, particularly in the Major Arcana, and the cards carry symbolic messages that often reflect planetary or sign influences. By understanding these connections, you can gain additional insight into the energies at play in your life, helping you make more informed decisions and uncover hidden patterns.

The Connection with the Kabbalistic Tree of Life

Astrology is also connected to the Kabbalistic Tree of Life, a map of spiritual and personal development in Jewish mysticism. The ten spheres (Sefirot) on the Tree correspond to planetary influences and stages of consciousness. By linking astrology to the Tree of Life, we can interpret planetary positions not only as personal traits or challenges but also as steps on a spiritual journey, providing guidance for personal evolution and higher awareness.

Ultimately, astrology is more than a tool for self-reflection-it is a bridge to other esoteric systems, allowing you to explore the connections between planets, numbers, tarot, and the Kabbalistic Tree of Life. By studying your astrological chart, you gain a practical and mystical map to understand yourself, navigate life's cycles, and align with your highest potential.

THIRD PART

THE TREE OF LIFE AND THE SEFIROT

By understanding the Sefirot, you uncover the hidden links between Numerology, Astrology, and Tarot, and see the structure of your inner universe.

TREE OF LIFE

TREE OF LIFE

The Tree of Life is a central symbol in Kabbalah, the mystical tradition of Judaism. It represents the map of creation, consciousness, and spiritual evolution. The Tree is made up of ten spheres, known as the Sefirot, which are stages or qualities of divine energy. These spheres describe how the infinite (the divine source) flows into the physical and spiritual worlds, and how human beings can align with this flow to live with greater awareness, balance, and purpose.

Each Sefirah represents a unique quality such as wisdom, love, strength, beauty, or manifestation. Together, the ten Sefirot form a complete system that shows the interconnectedness of the spiritual and material realms. By studying and meditating on the Tree of Life, you gain insight into your inner structure, your challenges, and the higher possibilities of your journey.

The Connection with Numerology

The Tree of Life is deeply tied to numerology. Each Sefirah is assigned a number from 1 to 10, and these numbers carry symbolic meaning. For example, 1 (Keter) represents pure potential and divine will, while 10 (Malkuth) represents manifestation in the physical world. By exploring the numbers of the Sefirot, you can see how numerological principles align with spiritual lessons and stages of growth.

The Connection with Astrology

Astrology also connects to the Tree of Life. Each Sefirah and path on the Tree is associated with planets, zodiac signs, and celestial energies. These correspondences allow the Tree to reflect the same cosmic principles found in astrology, offering another way to understand how planetary forces influence your spiritual and personal development. Together, astrology and the Tree provide a multidimensional map of the heavens and the self.

TREE OF LIFE

The Connection with Tarot

The Tarot's Major Arcana is directly connected to the Tree of Life. Each of the 22 cards corresponds to one of the 22 paths that connect the Sefirot, linking the archetypes of Tarot to stages of consciousness on the Tree. This relationship allows Tarot readings to be more than symbolic messages—they can become reflections of your soul's journey along the Tree of Life, offering profound insight into your growth and challenges.

Ultimately, the Tree of Life is more than a mystical diagram—it is a universal map of creation, consciousness, and transformation. By exploring its connections to numerology, astrology, and Tarot, you discover how ancient wisdom traditions interweave to guide you toward deeper self-understanding, spiritual growth, and alignment with your highest potential.

TAROT CARDS 4

The Tarot is a mirror of the soul, revealing the archetypes, symbols, and lessons that guide us to self-realization

TAROT

TAROT CARDS

Tarot is a symbolic system of cards used for guidance, self-reflection, and personal growth. The deck is traditionally made up of 78 cards, divided into the Major Arcana (22 cards) and the Minor Arcana (56 cards). Each card carries specific imagery, symbolism, and meanings that reflect universal archetypes, human experiences, and life lessons. By studying and working with the cards, you can gain insight into your thoughts, emotions, challenges, and potential paths forward.

Tarot can be approached as a tool for self-discovery, intuition, and decision-making. The Major Arcana often represents significant life events or spiritual lessons, while the Minor Arcana focuses on everyday experiences and practical situations. By reflecting on the cards drawn in a reading, you can uncover hidden patterns, clarify choices, and gain guidance on personal or spiritual matters.

The Connection with Numerology

Tarot and numerology are closely connected. Each card in the Major Arcana corresponds to a number (0-21), and the numbers carry symbolic significance that often reflects numerological principles. By understanding the numbers behind the cards, you can gain additional insight into the energies influencing your life, uncover recurring patterns, and interpret readings with greater depth.

The Connection with Astrology

Astrology and Tarot also share a strong relationship. Many Tarot cards are linked to zodiac signs, planets, or astrological elements, allowing the deck to reflect cosmic influences. By combining Tarot with astrology, you can see how planetary energies and cycles may be affecting your experiences, helping you make more informed decisions and navigate life with greater awareness.

TAROT

The Connection with the Kabbalistic Tree of Life

The Tarot is also connected to the Kabbalistic Tree of Life, a map of spiritual development in Jewish mysticism. Each of the twenty-two Major Arcana cards corresponds to a path on the Tree of Life, linking the cards to stages of consciousness and personal evolution. By exploring these connections, Tarot can serve as a guide for both practical guidance and spiritual growth.

Ultimately, Tarot is more than a deck of cards—it is a bridge to other esoteric systems, allowing you to explore the connections between symbols, numbers, planets, and the Tree of Life. By working with the cards, you gain a practical and mystical map to understand yourself, navigate life's challenges, and align with your highest potential.

As you can see, the Tarot cards are connected deeply to all the methods we worked with - Numerology, Astrology and The Tree of Life.

There is just too much information that it is not possible for me to share it in this simple guide.

The path of the chariot carries within it the influence of higher-dimensions in to the lower-dimensions. All of his knowledge and wisdom is useless if it is not shared with others.

This is NOT a wheel of 'accidents' or 'coincidence' or 'mistakes' - there are none in the Universe. To be clean from judgements is a pre-requisite for the continuous evolution process. The justice card weights the meaning of a situation and overcomes the mistakes of the past with the sword of observation. We are the ones with the responsibility to decide how to use our judgment.

The path of justice guards the balance on the Tree of Life so the flow of The FOOL's energy will act in its natural frame. The path of justice also acts through logic and the Law of Karma, meaning, we can decide consciously to bring balance to our life, or this decision will be made for us naturally, sometimes even painfully. The hanged man card tells us that things are not what they seem. It teaches us to look beneath the surface level to really understand. This is a state in which consciousness moves to the collective-subconscious. The process of us learning changes and we begin learning through our dreams and third-eye. The hanged man is all water, reflecting like a mirror, upside down and reversed. This is the crucifixion of the Ego and the Life surrounding the "I", toward a selfless help to others through empathy. He is hanged, in an astonishing peace and tranquility, centered on himself but aware of the 'One Force' everywhere.

The path of the hanged man is the path of water and it is most essential on the Tree of Life. This is a mental process, a refinement of observation, where we become the other and the other becomes us. This is the moment where we connect to another side of Life, another dimension, and we can consciously communicate with Spiritual guides and people who passed away. This is a conscious movement in the Astral dimension. The death process is the key to Rebirth into higher levels. It is a process we must understand and not fear. The death card is one of the highest initiations, through the power of transformation.

The path of death takes us through a process called "The Dark Night of the Soul", which forces us to forgo our desires and needs for a union with our inner-light. Naturally, the essence of our personality is to satisfy our desires and fulfill our wants. The death is a new psychological attunement, a transformation, where our individuality relinquishes everything, to walk the darkness of night and develop a type of intimidating emptiness, a total lack of interest in anything, but with a faith there will be a resurrection into the Light - This is the feeling that drives us forward. Change and transformation of one energetic phase into something else. This is a path of our primal imagination and it is being guided from Above, because Death is but the Child of the Great Transformers.

Meaning for Readings - A huge change, something died inside, transformation, positive change.

Reversed - the need for a huge change, feeling stuck, tendency to get stuck.

Corresponds with - The number 13, The Hebrew Letter בָּ, Zodiac Sign Scorpio.

TEMPERANCE

TEMPERANCE is The FOOL realizing that he is an Angel.

The Temperance card is the ability to keep composure, restraint, and calmness within difficult situations or new and unfamiliar experiences. Temperance is the conscious ability to be present in two worlds at the same time - the visible and the invisible. From here also comes the ability to transmit information from one side to the other. Temperance is the point where all questions are answered. It is an elevation of the daily state of consciousness. The Angel of the Sun symbolizes the perfect balance between intelligence and wisdom.

The path of Temperance is one of the most important and difficult paths on the Tree of Life, leading us into the process known as the "Dark Night of the Soul." It is the path of trial and temptation, the path of condition. The path of Temperance is a continuous process of testing and measuring, of preparing the personality and the body to receive more energy of Light. It is the process of bringing Spirit into the body, which in turn changes our awareness while also transforming itself through that awareness. The path of Temperance creates something new, greater than the sum of its parts.

Temperance governs the tides of the Earth and the flow of the astral current. This process, also called "The Art," involves the inner manipulation of sexual energies in favor of spiritual ecstasy. It works through establishing a rhythm of movement - an inner masturbation of energy - a mental mastery of Kundalini energy. This is symbolized by the exchange of liquids between the cups.

Meaning for Readings - The ability to stay composed in any situation.

Reversed - The need to learn how to remain composed.

Corresponds with - The number 14, The Hebrew Letter ו, Zodiac Sign Sagittarius.

THE DEVIL

THE DEVIL is the moment when The FOOL is tested or mocked.

The Devil card is temptation. He is both the tempter and the redeemer. The Devil represents everything that pulls us away from the spiritual path, the distorted understanding of the concept of God. It is the illusion of judgment through outer appearance rather than inner reality. To rise above the Devil, the soul must employ temperance, discrimination, discernment, and a healthy sense of humor. The Devil teaches us how to face all experiences, whether awake or dreaming. We are chained to external appearances.

The path of the Devil is a mental bridge between the personality and our Higher Self. The Devil is not an evil figure separate from us, but the archetype of fear and darkness. The card is meant to be humorous, for our belief in the illusion of matter and what we call "real" is laughable. Laughter and a healthy sense of humor about our lives are among the tools for transcending the Devil. By using intellect and structured meditation, we are able to redirect the flow of astral light. The Devil is the lord of existing phenomena, to be observed and mastered - knowledge alone is enough to turn into something new. He is the most masculine among all masculine energies.

The path of the Tower involves the constant building and destruction of ideas. The mouth that speaks words of power, vibrating with the energy of Mars, is an essential tool for destroying our personal towers - false ideas and limiting belief patterns. The Tower is the "I." The lightning strike is the sudden realization of our true identity. Another name for this card is "War," to remind us that our inner spiritual growth must be both painful and awe-inspiring. Every question asked is answered through patience and serenity.

The path of the Star is the highest level of intuition, imagination, and meditation. When we succeed in meditating truly, we understand that it is not we who do meditation, but that meditation does us. The Higher Self draws the personality into meditation, pulling us upward from the prison of ourselves. The great star symbolizes the merging and convergence of many lights shining from one high point. The path of the Star is the way to perfection, it is the method. The two vessels symbolize the separation and re-union of emotions, intuition, and thoughts.

THE MOON

THE MOON is The FOOL seeing the unseen and the hidden.

The Moon card represents the open collective subconscious and the presence of supernatural and extrasensory forces. It is the study of the mystical and esoteric teachings. The Moon is the stage in which we receive strong visions from dreams, and at times we may feel confused about what is real and what is astral. The Moon organizes our body and consciousness during sleep. It symbolizes the awareness that continues to function even when the rest of the mind is at rest.

The path of the Moon is both organizer and creator. It is a primitive path of pure animal nature and instincts, of passions and energies not controlled by intellect, morality, or ethics. It is the biological process of birth, death, and rebirth. The path is sometimes described as the "victory of the material world" or the "deceptive result of the visible power of material forces." It is the conquest of phantoms reflected from the material world into the astral realm. When we conquer our dreams and slay our dragons, we gain the ability to use these qualities within ourselves and influence others as well. The river crab rising from the waters symbolizes the organic evolution of humankind. The howling animals represent the guardians of the Moon goddess, Diana the Huntress, ready to attack and destroy whatever does not belong.

Meaning for Readings - Mystery revealed, supernatural and extrasensory abilities, lucid dreams, open collective subconscious.

At this stage, the wisdom that was once inside the student at the beginning of the journey can now break outward, shining with clarity and influence. When we realize that we are returning home, we are reborn. Now we know who we are, where we came from, and where we are going. It is the renewal and resurrection of the body, following the renewal and resurrection of the mind. It is the naked truth of things as they truly are.

The path of the Sun is an active path, requiring mastery over many elements, just as the Sun governs the zodiac. The Sun represents the highest level of human intellect. It is the source from which we emerged, a source of immense light. The path of the Sun clarifies for us the true relationship between mind and body. The same source that grants us light, warmth, growth, expansion, and life, can also destroy all things. This is also the point where sexuality is understood as the secret power of evolution. We return to innocence, become young again, and renew ourselves.

Meaning for Readings - Success, light, wisdom, understanding, knowledge, life.

Reversed - The need to seek light, knowledge, and success within.

Corresponds with - The number 19, The Hebrew Letter נ, Planet Sun.

JUDGEMENT

JUDGMENT is The FOOL awakening, his final understanding.

The Judgment card speaks of resurrection, a rebirth after death. It is the merging of the conscious, the subconscious, and the collective unconscious. This is the moment when the soul discovers the Key of Life and fully understands the meaning of the Tree of Life. It is the completion of a mission, a state of closure. When wisdom destroys the outer form of the world and reveals the hidden nature of all things, then we are able to absorb the very essence of spirituality within us. Enlightenment begins with the mental perception of the true world.

The path of Judgment is the process the personality undergoes through its deep desire to become aware of its inner work. It is the ongoing process of self-examination. Everything judged as unworthy or ineffective is slowly burned in the fire. This is literally a physiological process of transformation and the building of a master's body. The Archangel arrives once the fire of passion and will has been ignited.

Meaning for Readings - Rebirth, new life, resurrection, something ending, a moment to celebrate with joy.

Reversed - The need to continue the journey, to seek new things.

Corresponds with - The number 20, The Hebrew Letter וּ, Element Fire.

THE WORLD

THE WORLD is The FOOL whose time has come to leave Earth, after many lifetimes.

The World card is the doorway out for human beings, and the doorway in for angels. It is a gate, a passage into new experiences. After we have gained complete mastery over ourselves and our environment, the One Power becomes the reality of our lives. This is the point of connection with the cosmic unconscious.

The path of the World is the entry into the astral realm, which seeks to deceive us. Discernment is the key, using both reason and emotion. When we close our eyes and see visions, we perceive the subtle form of matter in the astral dimension. Most of the physical world is invisible. Our understanding and learning about these universal subtle patterns are based on what we have studied here on Earth, in the material world. Our experiences in this world tell us something about the Creator above. The World shows us all energies displayed in their full glory, balancing themselves. Some refer to this path as "Heaven" or "Nirvana." This is the path open to anyone who has begun to bring their personality into balance and self-understanding. Such people will find inner help, guidance, and encouragement at every step. Between Alpha and Omega, there is a whole world.

Meaning for Readings - Happy ending, success, completion of the journey, closure of a phase or situation, beginning of new life.

Which Tarot symbols or images consistently evoke strong feelings in me, and why?

How does Tarot support me in connecting with the unseen or spiritual dimension of life?

If I imagine these cards speaking directly to me, what guidance or warning might they offer right now?

What role do I want Tarot to play in my ongoing journey of self-discovery?

ANALYZING YOUR "SELF"

As you come to the end of this guidebook, remember that what you have received is not a fixed label or a rigid definition of who you are. It is a mirror, a set of keys, a map that points you back to your own inner truth.

Numerology, astrology, the Tree of Life, and the Tarot are ancient languages of wisdom, but they only come alive when you engage with them personally. The real power of this system lies not in the words on these pages, but in how you use them to spark awareness, to ask questions, and to live more consciously.

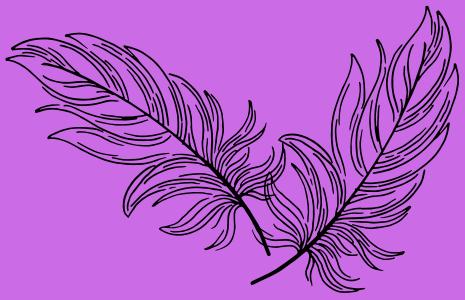

This journey is ongoing. Self-analysis is not about arriving at a final answer, but about deepening your relationship with yourself. Return to your notes, revisit the self-reflection questions, and explore the correspondences again and again. Each time you do, you will uncover new connections and fresh insights. Just as life itself is always moving, your understanding of yourself will keep evolving. Be patient with your growth, and allow the wisdom you've touched here to guide you step by step.

Above all, let this work inspire you to embody what you have learned. Use it as fuel to express your potential, to heal what has been wounded, and to share your light with others. The more you live from this place of awareness, the more your life becomes aligned, authentic, and meaningful. May this guidebook serve not as an ending, but as the beginning of a richer, more awakened chapter of your journey.
